Compagnie du Ponant will hold its sixth Symphony at Sea cruise this summer aboard the new flagship Le Boreal as she sails through the waters of Turkey and the Greek Isles. Acclaimed European musicians and young soprano Yana Boukoff will perform popular symphonies under the artistic direction of trumpet virtuoso Guy Touvron. There will also be interviews with the performers, conducted by renowned French journalist Isabelle Yhuel.

The voyage begins on 30 August 2010 in Turkey as Le Boreal slips out of Antalya Harbour, bound for Istanbul. Those who have previously savoured the elegance of cruising with Compagnie du Ponant are eagerly awaiting the ship's launch in May. Sporting the good looks and style of a private yacht, Le Boreal will cut a smart figure as she glides from one glamorous Mediterranean port to the next. Her refined main lounge has a spectacular modern chandelier, curved leather lounges and a baby grand piano, and is the venue for afternoon tea and post-dinner dancing.
